APPLICANTS SOUGHT FOR ASSESSMENT APPEALS BOARD County of San Diego taking applications

The County of San Diego is seeking applicants to serve on its Assessment Appeals Board, which holds hearings on property assessment disputes between taxpayers and the county Assessor.

The quasi-judicial board currently has vacancies for three board members and two alternate members.

Applicants must have a minimum of five years professional experience in California as a certified public accountant or public accountant, licensed real estate broker, attorney or property appraiser accredited by a nationally recognized professional organization.

Applicants must also show competent knowledge of property appraisal and taxation laws.

Applicants would be appointed by members of the Board of Supervisors to terms of three years.

The Assessment Appeals Board usually meets twice a month, on Thursdays. Members get $50 for attending 4-hour hearings and $100 for hearings that last more than four hours.

Applications are available at the Clerk of the Board Office in the County Administration Center, Room 402, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego. They are also available at the Clerk's Web site at www.sandiegocob.com. On the Web site, highlight the link for Assessment Appeals and click on Applications Form.
